THE WAY UNCLE SAM GETS FARMS FROM INDIANS.

BY ANOS CILBERT.

(Concluded.) All the writers and speakers that I have consulted, except Rev. Timothy Flint, (a suitable cognomen), and government officials, bear corroborating testimony. I have no words to express my disapproval of the duplicity, the avarice, the cowardice, eruelty; total disregard of inborn rights and pracsical denial of moral principle, on the part of the United States in relation to their treatment of the natives. Wm. Penn pursued a different course. Mark the results. He conceded the humanitythe manhood of the Indian, and thus enlightened them without impairing his self-respect.

From G. L. Davenport, I learn that the Indians whole tribe was engaged in imploring blessing, dable to the other tribes, when most numerous another before a hunting expepition; a third when against them. they gathered their crops, and a fourth at the close The gate keeper of the bridge over the stream Position of the United States in respect to slavery-
